12. There is, likewise, ample basis for the view that the ancient Hindu Law did not regard a person who spent money upon the education of a member of his family as having any legal right to reimbursement or return of the outlay. Ages ago, it was laid down by the Smritis, and it is still the law, that an educated member of the family is entitled to demand a partition at any time and his share is not liable to be debited with even a farthing of the cost of his education, however high it may have been. Nor can the member who has made the outlay compel the member, educated at his expense, to earn or to save or even to postpone his demand for partition, and it is perfectly true to assert that a member of the family who spends money for another's education has no legal right to any return of the outlay. His expectation of benefit, if any, is a mere moral expectation, and it is neither necessary nor feasible to clothe it with legal sanction without violating the most deep-rooted principles of the Hindu law.

13. If an educated member of a family, unrestrained by feelings of delicacy, forces a partition as soon as he begins to earn, the family has no legal claim upon him for reimbursement of the outlay made on his education, nor any share in his future acquisitions. It is not, therefore, merely anomalous but unjust that, while in such a case the earning member should be able to keep all his earnings to himself, the educated member who, from feelings of generous delicacy, does not wish to enforce a partition against the other members, but confers benefits upon them during the time they are joint, should, in return for his generosity, be subjected to the penalty of a forfeiture of the greater part of his own acquisitions.

14. The Bill will also have the effect of preventing an inquiry into the character of the education and the means by which such education was imparted. The difficulties of such an inquiry in any suit concerning the property of the acquirer are enormous, especially when it takes place after the death of the acquirer and many years after the completion of his education. In most cases, such an inquiry is very harassing, when conducted at the expense of the estate and with a helpless widow or daughter on the defensive.

15. No fear need be entertained that the present Bill, if passed into law, will lead to the violent break-up of the joint family system, for, while the existing law furnishes the strongest inducement to the educated member to separate himself as soon as he begins to make a respectable income, the Bill, on the other hand, would remove this inducement.

16. The Bill is in conformity with the unquestionable working of the 'great law of property' as Ruskin called it, which obtains in all civilised countries and according to which a man who works for a thing shall be allowed to get it, keep it and consume it in peace.

L. A. BILL No. 30 OF 1929.

A Bill to regulate the publication of reports of judicial proceedings in such manner as to prevent injury to public morals.

WHEREAS it is expedient to regulate the publication of reports of judicial proceedings in such manner as to prevent injury to public morals; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Judicial Proceedings Regulation Act, 1929.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

(3) It shall come into force on the 1929.

Publication of judicial proceedings relating to an indecent matter.

2. It shall not be lawful to print or publish or cause or procure to be printed or published in relation to any judicial proceedings any indecent matter or indecent medical, surgical or physiological details, being matter or details the publication of which would be calculated to injure public morals:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to the printing of any pleading, transcript of evidence or other document for use in connection with any judicial proceeding or the communication thereof to persons concerned in the proceedings or to the printing or publishing of any notice or report in pursuance of the directions of Court, or the printing or publishing of any matter in any separate volume or part of a bonâ fide series of law reports or in any publication of a technical character bonâ fide intended for circulation among members of the legal or medical profession.

Punishment.

3. If any person acts in contravention of the provisions of this Act, he shall in respect of each act be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months or to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees or to both such imprisonment and fine:

Provided that no person other than a proprietor, editor, master, printer or publisher shall be liable to be convicted under this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Progressive countries have realised the necessity of preventing the publication of indecent details concerning judicial proceedings, the two outstanding examples being France and Great Britain. The necessity that arises in this behalf is an urgent one particularly in cases where minor children are involved and where sordid details of domestic life have to be exposed in law-courts. This Bill follows generally the lines and language of the British enactment covering the same subject.

Short title, extent,

1. (1) This Act may be called the Abolition of Capital Punishment Act, 19 .

2. Exception.—The provisions of this Act shall not affect the provisions of section 132 of the Indian Penal Code or, of the Indian Army Act, 1911, or any other law or Statute passed either by the Indian Legislature or the British Parliament, under which death penalty can be inflicted, and which affects the discipline or maintenance of His Majesty's military, naval or air forces in India.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Capital punishment has been wholly or partly abolished in many of the progressive countries of the world. Australia, Belgium, Denmark, Holland, Italy, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, and a few States in America, have already done away with death penalty. Public opinion in England, and in many other countries is also coming round to the view that capital punishment is a relic of barbarism, and is not suited to the social needs of the present time. The plea that capital punishment acts as a deterrent, and exercises a restraining influence, is not borne out by the experience of modern States.

The arguments in support of the abolition of the death penalty are shortly as follows:—

It demoralises those who inflict it: its harshness has the effect of coarsening the public sentiment. To authorise killing is to tamper with the sanctity of human life; sometimes innocent persons have been sentenced to death, and in such cases no reparation is possible. Science has now proved that murders are often committed under the influence of a frenzy, which is of the nature of a disease, and has to be treated like many other diseases by proper therapeutic means. To end the life of such criminal may seem to be a short cut; but it has the effect of depriving the culprit of all opportunity of improvement under proper remedial conditions. In times when the dignity of human life was not adequately realised, public conscience tolerated this drastic remedy. But with the growth of a larger perception of the economy of human life, and the need of making the best use of the same, it is necessary that means should be adopted to remove this method of punishment. The principle that punishment for offences should be primarily regarded as a means of correction and reformation of criminals and criminally inclined persons, as also as a means of educating the social conscience of the community against crimes of violence or cruelty makes it imperative under modern conditions that the death penalty for offences should be abolished. The provisions of the Bill are accordingly intended to give effect to the above objects.

The Bill is not intended to affect any Statute of the British Parliament applicable to India; nor does it in any way affect discipline in His Majesty's army, navy, or air force.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Court-fees Act, 1870, for a certain purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Court-fees (Amendment) Act, VII of 1870. 192 .

(2) It shall apply only to Ajmer-Merwara.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

Amendment of section 7, Act VII of 1870.

2. To clause (ii) of section 7 of the Court-fees Act, 1870, the following proviso shall be added, namely:— VII of 1870 .

“ Provided that, in suits for maintenance by widows, the amount of fee payable under this Act shall be computed according to the value of the subject matter of the suit and such value shall be deemed to be the amount claimed to be payable for one year only.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under section 7, clause (ii), of the Court-fees Act, 1870, the amount of fee payable in suits for maintenance is computed according to the value of the subject matter of the suit which is deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year. This operates with great hardship on poor widows, who have to sue for maintenance. A widow claiming Rs. 10 a month for maintenance has under the present law to pay court-fees on Rs.  $10 \times 12 \times 10$ —Rs. 1,200 and then process fees to get witnesses summoned have to be paid in addition, and these fees are also computed on this large sum of Rs. 1,200. Widows who claim maintenance are very poor and they can hardly afford to pay such high court-fee and process fees. They have often, therefore, to forego their right of maintenance and have to live at the mercy of the people, who are under legal obligation to maintain them. In cases, where widows are able to raise money to pay such high fees, they do so on terms which impose very heavy, often unbearable, burdens on them.

Moreover, claims for maintenance by widows are distinguishable from other claims for maintenance and annuities and deserve more considerate treatment.

This Bill proposes to give facilities to widows claiming relief in this respect by reducing the value of the subject matter of the suit from 10 times the amount claimed to be payable for one year, to the amount claimed to be payable for one year only.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force on and from the day of 1929.

Share of daughter.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of Hindu Law to the contrary, and irrespective of the fact that she changes her religion or that she is married or unmarried, barren or issueless, or with issue, which is male or female, indigent or wealthy, chaste or unchaste, widowed or not, or suffering from disease, distemper, or deformity, curable or incurable, or that there is a custom excluding her from inheritance, every daughter in a Hindu family shall be entitled to inherit the property, ancestral or otherwise, of her father:

Provided that—

(i) where he leaves sons or grandsons or great-grandsons in the male line, a daughter shall take only a share equal to half of what she would get, if all the children of the father were sons;

(ii) where he leaves a widow, father or mother along with female issue, the latter shall take, out of the share provided for in proviso (1) supra, only two-thirds, and the remaining one-third shall be taken for life by the widow, father, or mother, or, all together, or such of them as shall be in existence, at the time, and the reversion therein shall be vested in the female issue abovesaid, or failing them, their heirs;

(iii) where the property left by the father is an Impartible Estate, or an Estate in which the Law of Primogeniture prevails, or both, the eldest daughter shall succeed to the whole Estate of the father, in cases where he leaves no male issue or widow; and every daughter who does not take the Estate itself, shall, as to rights of maintenance and other rights to properties, be in the same position, as if she were a younger son of the father, except that, in cases where he leaves a son or sons, the daughter or daughters shall have a right to recover, from the holder of the Estate, half of the maintenance, which a younger brother would get, if all the children of the father were sons.

Nature of right taken by daughter.

3. Every daughter, inheriting her father's or mother's property, shall take the same or her share therein, absolutely; and for purposes of inheritance by her heirs, the property shall be treated as her Stridhanam, with rights of disposition:

Provided that—

(i) in cases where a daughter inherits the whole property of the father, and dies leaving one or more sons or daughters, or both, the share shall pass to her, absolutely, in the proportion of 3 to 1; and in the absence of children, the whole share, and in default of sons, but the existence of daughter or daughters, two shares out of the four, shall pass to the reversioners of the father, and the remaining two shares be taken by the daughter, or daughters together;

- (ii) in cases where the daughter does not get the whole share of the father, but only a fractional share of a son or sons, as provided in this section, the property, which she so inherits, shall pass absolutely to her sons and daughters, in the proportion of 3 to 1 abovesaid; and in default of daughters, the whole property, which she inherits, shall pass to the sons; and in default of the latter, to her daughters; and in default of both sons and daughters, to her other heirs, but not to the reversioners of her father.

Nature of right
taken by widow

4. Notwithstanding any rule of the Mitakshara to the contrary, every widow shall have a right to enjoy, during her life-time, or widowhood (in the event of re-marriage) any share of the property, to which her husband would have been entitled, if a partition had been effected just prior to his death:

Provided that where the husband has left male issue, she shall be entitled, during her life, to a share equal to that of a son.

Order of succession of sister and sister's son.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Mitakshara or Dayabhaga schools of Hindu Law, the sister and sister's son shall rank, in the order of succession, next after the brother's grandson.

Women's right to partition.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Hindu Law, a woman shall have a right to claim partition of a share, to which she may be entitled and get the same separated.

Rights of alienation in a joint Hindu family.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Mitakshara, a member of a joint Hindu family shall be entitled to alienate family property by way of gift, devise, sale, mortgage or the like with respect to the whole or any portion of his share.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is intended by this Bill to extend the scope of the Hindu Law of Inheritance, as at present administered, by giving larger rights to women generally and to the members of a Hindu joint family and also to sister's sons and other heirs. As regards the existing rights of inheritance of women under Hindu Law, there is a large body of public opinion which desires that their position should be improved, especially that of daughters and widows. I have thought over the matter and consulted friends on the subject; and I must confess that while the desire to improve the position of daughters, sisters, sister's son and widows, to mention only a few of the heirs under Hindu Law, is strong in them, there is not only no consensus of opinion, as to what should exactly be their position and status, with respect to succession, but there is a great diversity and divergence of opinion. Some say that the giving of a share to women and a right to partition will tend to create disruption of the Hindu joint family system, and therefore suggest that only the value of the share should be given to them. Some are of opinion that, if the value of the share be given to them the husband, the father-in-law, or other male relations, as the case may be, of the daughter, the widow, and other female heirs, will have an incentive to appropriate it to themselves, in times of need. They, therefore, suggest the advisability of giving them an annuity and making it to enure for the benefit, if necessary, of their issue, wholly, or until their education is completed, or their marriage is over, or majority is attained. I had therefore to draft Bills, from time to time, on different considerations. At last, I considered it better to provide a share to these heirs.

One object I kept in view throughout was, not altogether to ignore the claims of reversioners, who seemed to me to be unpopular in the eyes of some of the present-day Hindus, with respect to their rights of succession. They were allowed rights on the ground that it is they who have, in the absence of nearer heirs, to promote the spiritual benefit, by offering oblations and pinda to the propositus, in cases where he dies issueless. My chief aim in not ignoring their claim is to give some importance to the offer of pinda and oblation, which most of the Hindus believe would tend to the spiritual benefit of the propositus.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

In clause 2 of the Bill I provide for the daughter a share in the property of the father. My reason for this is, that, I consider, it is only just, for she shares, with sons, the same blood and has as good a place in her parent's affections as the sons.

As the Law at present stands, under the Mitakshara School of Hindu Law, if one of two undivided brothers dies first, leaving a daughter, and afterwards the surviving brother dies childless, the estate will pass to the collateral relations and not to the daughter of the first brother. But, under the Dayabhaga School, which obtains in Bengal the daughter would, at once, take the share of her deceased father. In this case, and circumstances such as these, the administration of Law, so far as the daughters governed by the Mitakshara

School is concerned, is felt to be a great hardship. I have therefore practically suggested that, in this respect, the law under Mitakshara should be brought into line, with that under Dayabhaga, and in those parts of the country where the Mitakshara prevails she should be allowed a definite share. The idea of allowing female issue a share in her father's estate is not altogether foreign to Hindu Law. If I remember aright, Yagyavalkya advocated a share to daughters.

The clause makes it clear that daughters shall have a share, irrespective of any circumstances, in which they may be placed. My reason for this is, there is a great variance in this matter in different parts of the country; and I consider these differences should not be kept up in the present conditions of things. There are certain castes, in certain parts of India, where there are local or family customs, by which a daughter is excluded from succeeding to the widow of her father.

In Bengal, incontinence will prevent a daughter taking the estate of her father. In other parts of India, virtue in the daughter is not considered essential for her to inherit; and it is not enforced in the case of any female heir other than a widow or wife.

Again, in a decision reported in the Bombay High Court Reports, it was stated that a daughter should be excluded from inheritance, in case she suffered from an incurable disease, on the authority of Smriti Chandrika, which based its views as to rights of daughters, upon religious principles; but the Madras High Court declined to accept this view. Similarly, with regard to other matters mentioned in the proviso, there is a great divergence of opinion. I consider that, in this matter, she should be given a right, unfettered by any conditions.

Proviso 1 allows daughters no equal share with sons, but only a moiety of their share. The reason for this distinction is that while both the son and daughter share their parent's blood equally and are equally high in the affections of their parents, one continues in the family and perpetuates the lineage of the father, the other passes out of it into a different family. On this account, I considered that a differentiation in the matter of the share was proper.

Proviso 2 deals with the cases of the rights of a widow, mother or father of a person to whose properties daughters succeed along with the sons or by themselves, when the father is devoid of male issue. Considering that a father is bound to maintain them irrespective of the possession of assets from their ancestors, it is only right they should not be altogether neglected by their grandsons (so far as the parents of the father are concerned) and by their sons (so far as their own mother or step-mother is concerned). I, therefore, thought it right, they should get a portion of the share provided for the daughters for their lives, with a reversion of the same to the daughters or on their default to their heirs.

Proviso 3 places the eldest daughter in the same position as the eldest son, so far as her right to succession to Impartible Estates, and to estates in which the Law of Primogeniture prevails, or in both; and in all cases where the father leaves no sons, it gives to the other daughters the same rights as to the younger sons left by the father, whose property is taken by the eldest son alone.

Clause 3 gives daughters in the share provided for her, absolute powers, except that in case where she inherits the whole property of her father, it is, in a certain proportion, divided between her sons and daughters as it is considered just, that the daughters also should get a small share in her mother's property, inherited by the latter, from her father, along with her sons. The son is necessarily provided with a larger share, as he gives pinda to his maternal grandfather, which daughters cannot do. In case of the failure of issue, or in case of the existence of only daughters, on the principle that those who give pinda to the maternal grandfather should be also benefited, I provided reversion of the whole share in the former case, and a half share in the latter case.

In cases where she has brothers and gets a fractional share, I provided that her children, and in their absence, her heirs, shall take her share and not the father's reversioners, as the father has male heirs to attend to his spiritual needs.

Clause 4 deals with the case of the widow's right. Under Dayabhaga school of law, a widow is entitled to the share of her husband for life. This is, of course, due to the fact that the law, as administered under Dayabhaga school, treats each member of an undivided family as a tenant in common and not as a joint tenant. Under Mitakshara school of law, the case is different; and a widow is entitled to maintenance from members of a joint Hindu family, though she succeeds to her husband's share, where he leaves self-acquired or separate property. It is proposed in this clause to follow the provisions of Dayabhaga in all cases. I know that there is a difference of opinion, on this matter, among those, who follow the rules of the Mitakshara. Whatever be the view taken the maintenance now allowed to the widows under Hindu Law as administered in parts other than Bengal, where Dayabhaga law prevails, varies from the full income of the share of the husband to a trifle, at the discretion of Courts. In order to give effect to her right to the full share of her husband's income, I provided that the share of the husband should be given to her for life, as in Bengal.

Proviso to clause 4 gives a widow, in cases where the husband leaves male issue, a share equal to that of a son for her life. I think it is only reasonable that the mother who was the mistress of the house before her husband's death, should be treated equally with a son in the matter of a share, though such share be limited for her life.

Clause 5 deals with the cases of sister, and sister's son. Both, these are very hard cases deserving of great consideration.

In the case of a sister and her position as heir under Hindu Law, it has a chequered career. Mayne in his Hindu Law stated as follows: "She is said to have no religious efficacy whatever, as she cannot offer any oblations to her brother. Benares writers, while accepting her as a sapinda, by reason of affinity, do not make her a gotrasapinda, as she passes into a strange gotra immediately on her marriage. A passage in Sancha and Lachita seems to affirm the right of a sister to succeed to her brother. Nandapandita and Balambhatta interpret the text of the Mitakshara, which gives inheritance to brethren, as including sisters, so that brothers take first and then sisters. The Bombay High Court, though it accepted this interpretation, does not fix her position in the line of heirs. But this is said to be opposed to the spirit of the Benares Law. Her position now stands as follows. In Bombay her right to succeed to the brother is beyond dispute. In Bengal and Benares, she has no right. In Madras, her right was recognised a few years ago and she is placed, even where she is recognised as heir, very far away from daughters and brothers." This, I consider, is very unjust.

Similarly with regard to sister's son, the same high authority says that "he has suffered and been suffering grave injustice in the matter of his right of inheritance. Among the Bandhus who are omitted by the Mitakshara, the sister's son has had the severest struggle for existence, having even run the gauntlet of an adverse decision from the Privy Council. His right has always been recognised under Bengal Law. She is expressly named by the Dayabhaga. In the provinces governed by Mitakshara (not including Western India) it was supposed that she had no claim and this view was put forward almost unanimously by Text writers, Pandits, and Judges. The decision of the Bengal High Court was afterwards followed by the Madras High Court and in the High Court of the North-Western Province." In the circumstances I thought it would be only right to advance their ranks in the order of succession.

Clause 6 deals with the right of women to claim partition. "In former times," according to Mayne, again "when partitions were made, interests of women were much better provided for, than at present. When partition took place at father's death, the mother and the grandmother were each entitled to a share equal to the sons and the unmarried daughters each to a fourth share. If sons chose to remain undivided, they had a right to do so. Women could never compel a division. This still obtains where the father leaves male issue." To me it looks unreasonable and unjust to give woman a right to division and yet place restrictions thereon. I therefore provided for this right.

In spite of all this, the sister and sister's son were recognised by decisions to be mere heirs. This is hardly fair. They deserve to be brought much nearer than they are at present in the matter of their rank in the order of succession. What is after all the difference between a brother and sister, except it be their sex? While one continues in the gotra, the other goes out of it. The same thing may be stated with regard to the brother's son and sister's son. So far as the blood relationship is concerned, one is as near to the propositus as the other. In the case of the sister's son he is in a position to attend to the spiritual necessities of his maternal uncle. I therefore think it is only right that these two heirs, the sister and her son should be promoted and allowed to rank at least after the brother's grandson. I, therefore, suggest that these be ranked as provided for in the order of succession.

Clause 7 deals with the right of alienation by a member of a joint Hindu family to dispose of his share of property as he likes. At present, an alienation by him is invalid, unless he was divided or had declared, in an unequivocal manner, his intention to divide or separate (vide 31 M. L. J. 55 P. C.; 43 I. A. 15). If he so likes, just before he devised his property, he could make this declaration and then his disposition is held to be valid. In these circumstances, there is no meaning in saying that a coparcener has no right to devise property, when he can do it by means or merely making an unequivocal declaration.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Man-made laws have at times been extremely harsh on women folk. A woman often suffers special obloquy and even gets outcasted if she becomes a mother through free love while in unmarried or widowed state. To save herself from social ostracism often she has recourse to exposure of the child of the illicit love on the roadside. At times the poor mother has not the wherewithal to support the child and social ostracism forces her to abandon the child. The law—man-made law it is in every case—provides for exemplary punishment to the unfortunate woman, but the real culprit—man who seduced and abandoned the helpless girl and the innocent child in their deplorable state—goes unpunished. The present Bill, if passed into law, will hold the putative father equally guilty for the murder of the innocent child, and he shall be liable to receive equal punishment with the mother. Incidentally such a deterrent law will minimise seduction of helpless widows and maidens, and illicit love will be a forbidden fruit.

(3) It shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1929.

Amendment of section 37, Act 1X of 1910.

2. In clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 37 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, after the words "regulate the publication of notices" the words "in any newspaper published in the area of supply, or, in absence of the same, in a newspaper published in the province," shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 37 of the Indian Electricity Act, 1910, empowers the Governor-General in Council to make rules to regulate generation, transmission, supply and use of energy, and, generally, to carry out the purposes and objects of the Act, and the Indian Electricity Rules of 1922 were framed for that purpose.

Applicants for an electric licence to supply in any area of supply are required to advertise the draft licence in three successive issues of the same newspaper published or circulated in the proposed area of supply. This loophole "circulated in the proposed area of supply" leads to many abuses. Advertisements have appeared in newspapers published outside the province even. That was not the purpose of the Act or Rules.

With the attainment of provincial autonomy, it should be only natural to expect that such notices should be advertised in newspapers published in the town or in the province. The provision in the rule "or in such newspapers as the Local Government may approve" covers the second alternative.

I may add here that the Bill, if passed into law, will necessitate an amendment of Rule 13, clause 3, to the following effect:—

In Rule 13, clause 3, omit "circulated" after the words "in at least three successive issues of same newspapers published."

A.—Judicial stamps.

5. The sale-proceeds of court-fee stamps (excluding stamps for copies) rose steadily during the past three years. The receipts during 1928-29 were Rs. 2,16,81,520 against Rs. 2,09,80,944 in 1927-28 and Rs. 1,99,06,495 in 1926-27. Compared with 1927-28 there was an increase in 1928-29 of Rs. 7,00,576 which was shared by all the divisions. The largest increase Rs. 2,67,041 was contributed by the Dacca Division owing, it is said, to increase in litigation.

The receipts from the sale of stamps for copies also rose from Rs. 8,75,642 in 1926-27 to Rs. 9,56,564 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 9,71,661 in 1928-29.

The receipts from the sale of plain paper used with court-fee labels rose from Rs. 3,47,362 in 1926-27 to Rs. 3,50,673 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 3,48,644 in 1928-29.

B.—Non-Judicial stamps.

6. The revenue derived from the sale of non-judicial stamps during 1928-29 amounted to Rs. 1,34,40,746 and showed an increase of Rs. 1,80,262, or 1·4 per cent. as compared with 1927-28 and of Rs. 5,36,210, or 4·2 per cent. as compared with that of the first year of the triennium. The increase occurred mainly under the heads of "Impressed Stamps" and "Miscellaneous Receipts."

7. Impressed stamps.—The receipts from the sale of impressed stamps (the most important item among non-judicial stamps) showed a progressive increase during the past three years. The revenue which amounted to Rs. 68,10,283 in 1926-27 rose to Rs. 71,34,476 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 74,64,231 in 1928-29. The growth in revenue was shared by all the divisions except the Presidency and the Burdwan. The increases in the districts of Mymensingh, Tippera and Rangpur are noticeable being 16·7, 14·4, 9·6 per cent., respectively, in 1928-29 over the receipts of 1927-28 and are due to the registration of a larger number of documents.

8. Hundi or inland bills of exchange.—The revenue derived from the sale of hundi or bill-of-exchange stamps rose from Rs. 1,44,683 in 1926-27 to Rs. 1,50,008 in 1927-28, but in 1928-29 fell to Rs. 1,36,847. The decrease is due to the fluctuation of trade and to the opening of banks and loan offices.

9. Impressed labels or special adhesive stamps.—The receipts from the sale of these stamps showed a progressive increase during the last three years. The receipts which amounted to Rs. 26,34,198 in 1926-27 rose to Rs. 28,52,991 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 28,97,137 in 1928-29. The sale of these stamps is mainly confined to Calcutta which contributed 99·9 per cent. of the total revenue from this source.

10. Foreign bill stamps.—The receipts from these stamps, which are sold mainly in Calcutta, amounted to Rs. 3,65,818 in 1928-29 against Rs. 3,77,668 in 1927-28 and Rs. 3,72,444 in 1926-27. The decrease was probably due to the comparative depression of trade.

11. Share transfer stamps.—The sale of these stamps, which are used for payment of stamp duty on transfer of shares of public limited companies, is practically confined to Calcutta. The revenue rose from Rs. 6,86,182 in 1926-27 to Rs. 8,17,215 in 1927-28, but fell to Rs. 6,38,310 in the last year of the triennium. The noticeable increase of Rs. 1,31,033 in 1927-28 is due to better trade conditions prevailing in Calcutta during the year and to increased speculation.

12. Stamps for legal practitioners' licenses.—The receipts from the sale of these stamps rose from Rs. 2,21,839 in 1926-27 to Rs. 2,46,618 in 1927-28, but fell to Rs. 2,38,312 in the last year of the triennium.

13. Notarial stamps.—These stamps were sold only in Calcutta and Chittagong during the triennium. The sale of last year amounted to Rs. 7,112 in comparison with Rs. 9,652 and Rs. 9,892 in the two previous years.

14. Forms for agreements and contracts chargeable with two-anna coloured impressions.—The revenue from this source, which is confined to Calcutta only, rose from Rs. 8,660 in 1926-27 to Rs. 8,668 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 9,243 in 1928-29.

15. Forms for cheques and receipts.—The sale of these forms, which are stamped with one-anna coloured impressions, brought in Rs. 3,08,700 in 1926-27, but the receipts fell to Rs. 73,037 and Rs. 53,213 during 1927-28 and 1928-29 respectively. The abolition of stamp duty on cheques, with effect from the 1st July 1927, was responsible for the large decline in the receipts of the last two years.

16. Miscellaneous receipts.—The receipts under this head were mainly derived from the duty and penalty realised under sections 32, 35, 37, 40 and 41 of the Stamp Act, 1899. The income from these sources fell from Rs. 5,77,655 in the first year of the triennium to Rs. 4,60,151 in 1927-28, which again rose to Rs. 5,00,523 in 1928-29. The bulk of the revenue under this head is contributed by Calcutta.

17. Arrangements for the sale of stamps.—* * * * *
 * * * * * The total number of vendors engaged in the sale of judicial and non-judicial stamps during the year 1928-29 was 5,665 against 5,539 and 5,377 in the previous two years. The expenditure on discount allowed to stamp vendors during 1928-29 was Rs. 4,75,374 which exceeded that of the two previous years by Rs. 11,591 and Rs. 31,383, respectively. The increase was due to the increased sale of stamps both judicial and non-judicial. The average discount per vendor during the triennium under report was Rs. 83 against Rs. 84 in the preceding period.

* * * * *

18. Punitive action of the Courts and Revenue officers.—*

 * * * * * The total number of cases dealt with by the Civil Courts increased from 1,371 in 1926-27 to 1,443 in 1927-28 and to 1,794 in the last year of the triennium. The duty and penalty realised by the Civil Courts increased also from Rs. 12,385 in 1926-27 to Rs. 13,870 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 14,003 in 1928-29. The number of cases dealt with by Revenue offices fell from 4,161 in 1926-27 to 3,845 in 1927-28 and to 4,026 in the last year of the triennium. The amount of duty and penalty realised in these cases amounted to Rs. 1,00,734 in 1928-29, as compared with Rs. 66,405 and Rs. 1,60,223 in 1927-28 and 1926-27 respectively.

19. * * * * * The number of cases instituted, as well as persons brought to trial, steadily increased during the triennium, viz., 145 cases involving 163 persons in 1926-27, 161 cases with 179 persons in 1927-28, and 180 cases with 202 persons in 1928-29. The fines imposed during the last year of the triennium amounted to Rs. 4,151 against Rs. 4,797 in 1927-28 and Rs. 3,138 in 1926-27. The amount paid in rewards in 1926-27 was Rs. 1,770 which rose to Rs. 2,999 in the following year and to Rs. 2,947 in the last year. No rewards were paid outside Calcutta.

20. Working of section 19 H added to the Court-fees Act, VII of 1870, by Act XI of 1899.—* * * *

The number of cases pending at the beginning of the year 1928-29 was 788 against 634 and 431 in the previous two years respectively. The number of cases reported to the Collectors rose from 1,427 in 1926-27 to 1,557 in 1927-28 which, however, fell to 1,402 in the last year of the triennium. The number of cases in which enquiries were instituted during the year 1928-29 was 1,925 against 1,952, and 1,707 in 1927-28 and 1926-27 respectively. The number of enquiries completed during 1928-29 was 1,531, as compared with 1,423 and 1,202 in the previous two years. The amount of deficit court-fees realised fell from Rs. 2,88,623 in 1926-27 to Rs. 1,73,556 in 1927-28 and to Rs. 1,71,492 in the last year of the triennium. Of the cases reported during the year 1928-29, including those pending at the beginning of the year, 69·9 per cent. were completely enquired into, the corresponding percentages in the preceding two years being 64·9 and 64·7 respectively. The proportion borne by the deficit duty required to the amount originally realised was 12 in 1928-29 against 14·8 and 17·5 in the two preceding years respectively.

Personal Assistant to the Chief Engineer to the Government of Bengal.

CALCUTTA, the 13th November 1929.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for October 1929.

I. Character of the season.—During the month under review, the rainfall was much above the normal almost throughout the Presidency, excepting only in Jessore, Khulna, Faridpur, Bakarganj and in the districts of the Chittagong Division, where it was below the average. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Harvesting of autumn crops was over. Field operations for early spring crops commenced in places, but their progress was hampered to some extent by excessive rainfall in parts of North and West Bengal.

III. State of standing crops.—Good rainfall of the month materially improved the outturn of transplanted paddy and the outlook of other standing crops was reported to be generally promising.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The prospects of winter paddy which were so long considered to be not very hopeful turned better as a result of good showers during the month.

A good outturn is expected for the province as a whole. The outturn of sugarcane is expected to be about 82 per cent. of the normal.

V. Damage to standing crops.—No damage to standing crops is reported from any part of the province, except in places of Bankura and Bogra, where the crops were somewhat affected by excessive rain.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—Condition of live-stock was generally fair. Stray cases of cattle-disease were, however, reported from six districts.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—No insufficiency of fodder was reported from any part of the province.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month, the price of common rice of the cheapest quality rose in two districts, fell in twelve and remained stationary in the rest of the province. The price ranged from 5 seers per rupee at the 24-Parganas to 9 seers per rupee at the Chittagong Hill Tracts.

IX. Condition of agricultural population.—The condition of agricultural population continued to be generally fair.

In addition to the details required on the reverse, clear information should be given below under the following heads:—

(a) If the ordinary surplus is insufficient to meet the charges of the proposed loan, the particular steps which the municipality has taken, or has agreed to take, in order to make good the deficiency.

(b) The reserve of taxation or other possible means of increase in the revenues of the municipality. The rates at which each of the taxes mentioned in column 12 on the reverse are levied, other than tax on persons, should be stated here.

(c) A statement of all outstanding loans specifying in respect of each loan, the date when taken, the purpose (very briefly), the amount, the annual charges involved, and the amount still payable.

(d) Any explanations in regard to receipts and expenditure to show the true financial position of the municipality when such position is otherwise than the ordinary surplus would indicate.

(a) The ordinary surplus is not quite sufficient to meet the charges of the proposed loan but the interest with the capital would be met from the water-rate.

(b) The municipality expects a substantial increase to its income by the imposition of water-rate and the Municipal Commissioners expect to introduce holding tax in place of personal tax if possible.

(c) A loan of Rs. 3,667 was taken from Government on the 5th February 1923 to meet the cost of constructing mothers' sheds for thirty years re-payable in thirty equal annual instalments of Rs. 295-8-2, and out of it six instalments have already been paid. The loan was sanctioned by Government of Bengal, Local Self-Government Department, Local Self-Government Branch, No. 2081.S.G., dated the 30th January 1923.

(d) From the informations supplied in paragraphs (a) and (b) above it is evident that there would be no difficulty for the repayment of loan with interest in future.

[Sixth publication.]

No. 41-I.—3rd October 1929.—The following draft of rules and schedule of rates of tolls, which, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), the Governor in Council intends to make and fix for the khal known as the first side-cut along the Schillarganj Char Duani Road, joining Nali Done in the south and Shapleza khal in the north, in the Perojpur subdivision of the Bakarganj district, is hereby published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

II. The draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 28th November 1929, and any objections or suggestions received before that date will be considered.

Draft Rules and Schedule of Rates of Tolls.

1. Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the District Board of Bakarganj on this behalf.

2. Vessels for the purpose of the determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below:—

Class I.—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, kosh boats, green boats, etc.

Class II.—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats and barges and other square built vessels.

3. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of Act V (B. C.) of 1864 and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

CLASS I.

A. The product of one quarter the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water-line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of  $12\frac{1}{2}$  maunds, any remainder of less than  $12\frac{1}{2}$  maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

CLASS II.

For vessel of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class I shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance for engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way bills, the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills or in the case of steamers, the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

4. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which must be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

5. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the sarang, manjee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and the number of days for which the ticket remains current.

6. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

7. The ticket must be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and must be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 3 and 12 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

8. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

9. All vessels, whether the property of Government, District Board, other local bodies or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules or by a resolution passed by the District Board of Bakarganj from time to time.

10. The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

11. No rafts exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the canals.

12. The rates of toll shall be as follows:—

- |   |                      |
|---|----------------------|
| (1) On all vessels empty or laden, per hundred maunds   | Four annas.          |
| (2) On all vessels empty or laden, for $12\frac{1}{2}$ maunds or less                               | One-half anna.       |
| (3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber, etc., not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth | Two annas each raft. |

Tolls will be levied at Nali and Shapleza.

13. For boats frequently using the canal such as boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at 10 times the ordinary toll.

14. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the canal for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the canal. A vessel remaining in any part of the canal longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one-half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remain in the canal for more than one month. Provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 13 above, which may remain in the canal for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

15. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers and officers of the British Army, post mail runners, officers of the Irrigation Department on duty, officers and servants of the toll office for the canal referred to in these rules while on duty, or the vessels of such other persons as may be exempted by a resolution of the District Board of Bakarganj, shall be liable for toll in the canal.

16. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points, not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the District Board of Bakarganj at a meeting, and shall be subject to the approval of the local Government.

CALCUTTA, the 8th November 1929.

A. MAJID, Registrar, Calcutta.

The following is published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information :—

To His Excellency the Governor of Bengal.

In the matter of an election petition under Part VII of the Bengal Electoral Rules and other Rules and Regulations

and

In the matter of an election to the Bengal Legislative Council from the North Bakarganj Muhammadan Constituency

and

In the matter of Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem, of Bejoypur, police-station Doulatkhan, district Bakarganj, petitioner

versus

- (1) Maulvi Muhammad Hussain, of Bhashanchar, police-station Mehendiganj, district Bakarganj, at present a pleader at Barisal,
- (2) Maulvi Hashemali Khan, pleader, Barisal,
- (3) Maulvi Fazal Karim Chowdhury, of Ulania, police-station Mehendiganj, Bakarganj,
- (4) Maulvi Khorshed Alam Chowdhury, of Ulania, police-station Mehendiganj, Bakarganj,
- (5) Maulvi Syed Azizur Rahaman, of Batamara, police-station Barhanaddi, Bhola,
- (6) Mr. Hutchins, Returning Officer, Bakarganj, respondents.

The humble petition of Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem aforesaid,

Most respectfully sheweth :—

1. That your petitioner was a duly nominated candidate at the last general election for the Bengal Legislative Council from the Bakarganj (North) Muhammadan Constituency and the aforesaid respondents Nos. (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) were also candidates for the said election. The respondents Nos. (2-5) withdrew their candidature subsequently. Respondent No. (6) was the Returning Officer.

2. That the result of the polling which took place on the 1st and 5th June 1929 was as follows :—

	Votes.
(i) Maulvi Muhammad Hussain ..	2,364
(ii) Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem ..	2,307
Rejected .. ..	38
Missing .. ..	1

3. That the respondent No. (1) was declared as duly elected.

4. That your petitioner submitted his return of election expenses on the 20th July 1929.

5. That your petitioner begs to submit that the said election of the respondent No. (1) is illegal, void and liable to be set aside on the following grounds :—

GROUND.

(i) That Batamara Hat and Safipur Mian Bari were declared and published to be two of the polling stations for the 5th June 1929, but no polling was held at either of these two stations, there being no such place as Batamara Hat at all.

(ii) That, at the instance of the respondent No. (1) and his agents and men, the elections that were to take place at Batamara Hat and Safipur Mian Bari were actually held at Ramchar Hat, in a different mauza, and at the Safipur Board School, far away from Safipur Mian Bari.

(iii) That in consequence of the sudden shifting of the polling centres without any previous notice the voters, who would have voted for your petitioner, were seriously misled and could not record their votes at all and your petitioner lost about 150 votes on this account.

(iv) That the Presiding Officer or the Polling Officers had no authority to change the place of voting which were already notified as polling centres and they had no authority to select a new place as polling station.

(v) That no secrecy in the matter of recording votes was observed at either of these two stations—the votes being recorded in one case in an open ground—without any roof or enclosure in a part of the Ramchar Hat, on the hat day, and in other case in the open verandah of the Safipur Board School. The votes recorded at these two places ought to have been rejected.

(vi) That the Presiding Officer at Udaypur polling station refused to record the votes of more than 40 voters on mere technical defects in pronunciation of their names or in omitting the words as "Howladar", "Munshi" "Miji," etc., which are generally added to the names in writing but are generally omitted when one speaks of his own name. About 40 votes that would have been recorded in favour of your petitioner were thus refused to the serious prejudice of your petitioner. The names of voters whose votes were thus rejected were marked with "R" by the Presiding Officer.

(vii) That the respondent No. (1) and his agents and men engaged on his behalf promised, offered and distributed illegal gratifications and bribes and rewards and donations in many places to seriously influence the voters in favour of respondent No. (1) and against your petitioner and persuaded many voters to refrain from voting for your petitioner.

(viii) That the respondent No. (1) and his agents and men treated the voters with food, sarbat, drink, pan, cigarettes and sweetmeats in many places.

(ix) That the respondent No. (1) and his agents and men on his behalf paid boat hires, motor hires for the conveyance of the voters to and from the polling station.

(x) That the return of election expenses filed by the respondent No. (1) is not correct and is full of falsifications. He has not shown the actual receipts and expenditure incurred by him or his agents and men.

(xi) That your petitioner states that the respondent No. (1) by himself or by his agents and other persons acting on his behalf and with his knowledge or connivance was guilty of bribery, treating undue influence, personation, publication of false statements, illegal hiring and use of motor cars and boats, illegal payment and other corrupt and illegal practices in contravention of the electoral laws, rules and regulations before, during and after the said election.

(xii) That the nomination paper of the respondent No. (1) should have been rejected by the Returning Officer, respondent No. (6), as in the electoral roll his father's name did not appear and it could not be ascertained if he was the real person whose names appeared in the electoral roll as Mahaminad Hussain.

(xiii) That the respondent or his agents and men appointed on his behalf printed and published pamphlets and posters and hand bills without the name and address of the printer and publisher thereof, the pamphlets containing indirect insinuation against your petitioner and thereby seriously prejudicing your petitioner's election.

(xiv) That your petitioner craves leave to submit further instances, if he is so advised, of corrupt practices which may come to his knowledge in future.

6. That your petitioner begs to deposit the sum of Rs. 1,000 as security for the costs of the petition under rule 35 of the Bengal Electoral Rules. The chalan showing the deposit is enclosed herewith.

7. That your petitioner accordingly prays that Your Excellency may be graciously pleased to appoint Commissioners for the trial of this petition and after such inquiry as may be necessary and on the report of the said Commissioners, Your Excellency may be pleased—

- (i) to set aside the aforesaid election,
- (ii) to disqualify the said respondent No. (1) under the electoral rules for being guilty of corrupt practices,
- (iii) to declare your petitioner as duly elected,
- (iv) to reject the votes recorded at Ramchar Hat and Safipur Board School and recount the votes, and
- (v) to allow your petitioner the costs of and incidental to this petition, or
- (vi) to pass such other or further orders as to Your Excellency may seem fit and proper.

And your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

VERIFICATION.

I, Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem, petitioner abovenamed, say that the contents of the above paragraphs are true to information received which I believe to be true and I sign this verification at Barisal this 2nd day of August 1929.

List of corrupt practices referred to in paragraph of the petition.

The petitioner herein relies on the following among other corrupt practices committed by the respondent No. (1) or his agents and other persons acting on his behalf or with his knowledge and connivance :—

- (a) Payment of a sum of money paid to the Secretary or the Managers of the School at Gangapur,

(b) At first a promise to pay a sum of money to the Managers of the School at Lalmoan and failing to pay in cash, the giving of a hand note on the day of election.

(c) A promise of a donation to the Managers of the Patarhat H. E. School and the Charpata Madrassa given by the respondent No. (1) and his agents and men.

(d) Treating of voters at Joynagar and paying remuneration to voters there.

(e) Paying remuneration to voters at Mirjakaloo, Debirchar, Kalma, Ulania, Larua, Kanaiganj, Char Bhuta and Agarpur.

(f) Paying hires of motor cars for the voters at Baranaddi, Joynagar, Alinagar, Bhola and Debirchar.

(g) Payment of a donation to the Larua Board School, Paschim Larua L. P. Muktab, Uttar Sultani Muktab, Aaha Muktab and Memania Junior Madrassa.

(h) Payment of boat hire for the voters at Babaganj, Agarpur, Muladi and Ramchar Hat.

(i) Printing, publishing and circulating pamphlets and posters (enclosed herewith) without the name and address of the printers and publishers therefor.

(j) Treating voters with food, drink, sarbat, sweetmeats, pan, cigarettes at Muladi, Saffpur, Ramchar, Larua and Kanaiganj.

(k) That the respondent No. (1) has not shown the amounts drawn by him through his agents and men from the Barisal Rindan Samiti for the election expenses, e.g., Rs. 500 on the 9th May 1929 taken by his agent Makbul and Rs. 1,000 on the 15th May 1929 taken by his brother Abdul Hamid.

(l) That the respondent No. (1) has not shown the remittances made by him by postal money order from Barisal to Maulvi Akimuddin, pleader at Bhola.

(m) That the respondent No. (1) has not shown the expenses incurred by his agents and men—(1) Kuti Mian Chowdhury at Debirchar and Gazaria centres, (2) Elahi Bux Chowdhury at Kalma and (3) Akimuddin at Hat Sashiganj.

(n) That the respondent No. (1) has not shown the expenses incurred by his supervising agents, namely, (1) Abdul Wahab Khan, pleader, (2) Maulvi Azizuddin, pleader, (3) Mafazzal Haque, pleader of Barisal, and (4) Tofel Ahammad Chowdhury, Abdul Rahim Chowdhury and Chaud Ahmed Mian of Gangapur.

VERIFICATION.

I, Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem, petitioner abovenamed, say that the contents of the list are true to information received which I believe to be true and I sign this verification at Barisal this 2nd day of August 1929.

Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem, petitioner,

versus

Maulvi Muhammad Hussain and others, respondents.

The humble petition of the aforesaid petitioner,

Most respectfully sheweth :—

1. That as submitted in paragraph 14 of the election petition your petitioner begs to cite a fresh instance of a serious irregularity affecting the result of the election below.

2. That the polling centre of Gangapur Junior Madrassa was shifted about a mile off to Gangapur English School and many voters who would have voted for your petitioner could not record their votes at all owing to this change without notice.

And your petitioner as in duty bound shall over pray.

I, Maulvi Rahim Bux Salem, petitioner abovenamed, say that the contents of the above paragraph are true to information received which I believe to be true and I sign this verification at Barisal this 4th day of November 1929.

----------------------------------	--	---------------------	---

(3) the entry relating to section 8 shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the United Kingdom the sale or exposure for sale of condensed milk is prohibited unless the receptacle containing the milk bears a label to show to what extent dilution is necessary and whether the milk when so diluted will contain sufficient butter fat to be fit for babies. A great deal of condensed milk of various brands is imported into this country ; some kinds are full of cream and some are skimmed. The label generally contains a description, but it is rarely prominent. Illiterate purchasers can seldom distinguish between the different brands ; and as the skimmed variety is injurious to bottle-fed infants brought up on it, legislation is necessary to control the sale of such milk. Section 6 of the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, 1919 (Bengal Act VI of 1919) which deals with constituents of food in the mufassal, excludes condensed, sterilized and desiccated milk from its operation. It is therefore proposed to amend section 6 of the said Act so as to bring condensed, sterilized, and desiccated milk within its purview and to forbid the sale or exposure for sale of such milk if it contains a less proportion of non-fatty solids and of fat than such as may be prescribed by the Local Government. Power has also been taken to make rules specifying the manner in which each receptacle containing condensed, sterilized, or desiccated milk is to be labelled and marked.

It has been held that section 6 of the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, 1919, does not apply to the sale of sweetmeats containing adulterated ingredients, the sale of which by themselves would be punishable under that section. It is therefore also proposed to amend section 6 of the Act, so as to bring within its purview the sale of sweetmeats or other articles containing such adulterated ingredients.

No. 2885L., dated Calcutta, the 15th November, 1929.—His Excellency the Governor having been pleased to order, under rule 18 of the

THE BENGAL MUNICIPAL (AMENDMENT) BILL
1929.

A*BILL

further to amend the provisions of section 85 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the provisions of section 85 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, so as to authorise the levying of an increased rate on the annual value of holdings in the Kurseong Municipality.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Bengal Municipal (Amendment) Act, 1929.

Amendment
of section
85 of Bengal
Act III
of 1884.

2. In the first proviso to clause (b) of section 85 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, after the word "Dacca" the word "Kurseong" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The income of the Kurseong Municipality from sources other than water-rate and latrine fees is insufficient to cover the municipal expenditure on general purposes. Consequently the municipal commissioners have had to borrow from the Water Fund and the Latrine Fund in order to find money for outlay on general administration. As this procedure is quite irregular it is necessary to increase the income of the municipality from sources not earmarked for expenditure on particular objects. It is accordingly proposed to empower the municipal commissioners to assess the rate on holdings at 10 per cent. of the annual value as in Howrah, Darjeeling and Dacca, instead of the normal maximum of 7½ per cent. It is at the same time proposed to reduce the water-rate from 7 and 3½ per cent. to 5 and 2½ per cent.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is proposed to amend the Bengal Food Adulteration Act, 1919, so as to bring under regulation condensed sterilised and desiccated milk which at present is excluded from the provisions of section 5 of the Act. In order to make the practice in Calcutta and the mufassal uniform it is desirable that the corresponding provisions of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1923, viz., section 407 should also be amended. The present Bill provides for this. Opportunity has been taken to make a further amendment desired by the Corporation forbidding the use in butter of any preservative but salt.

2. Opportunity has also been taken to make the following amendments in the Act. These are all in the nature of drafting amendments and as such are non-controversial:—

- (a) sub-section (f) with the proviso, of section 45 of the Act, which is meaningless, has been expunged and a new sub-section has been inserted to make the intention clear; consequential amendments have been made in section 49 and the heading to Schedule III;
- (b) the mistake whereby section 26 instead of section 11 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, is mentioned in proviso (i) to section 475 has been corrected;
- (c) the omission of the word “Ditto” from column 3 against entry No. 56 in Schedule VI of the Act has been rectified;
- (d) the clerical mistake in the heading of Schedule XVIII has been corrected.

Annual accretion deemed to be income received.

58E. The annual accretion in any year to the balance at the credit of an employee participating in a recognised provident fund shall be deemed to have been received by him in that year and shall be included in his total income for that year, and, subject to the exemptions specified in section 58F, shall be liable to income-tax and super-tax:

Provided that, for the purpose of sub-section (3) of section 15, out of such annual accretion only the employee's own contributions shall be included in his total income.

Exemption of annual accretion from income-tax.

58F. (1) An employee shall not be liable to pay income-tax on contributions to his individual account in a recognised provident fund, in so far as the aggregate of such contributions in any year does not exceed one-sixth of his salary in that year.

(2) In the accounts of a recognised provident fund, the contributions exempted from income-tax under sub-section (1) and accumulations thereof shall be shown separately, and interest thereon shall be calculated and shown separately. Provided that the Commissioner of Income-tax may allow such exemption and exclusion where the employee has rendered continuous service with the employer for a period of less than five years, if, in his opinion, the service has been terminated by reason of the employee's ill-health, or by the contraction or discontinuance of the employer's business, or other cause beyond the control of the employee.

(2) Where exemption from payment of income-tax is not allowed under the provisions of sub-section (1), the Income-tax Officer shall calculate the total of the various sums of income-tax from the payment of which the contributions and interest credited to the employee's individual account have been exempted under the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 58F, and such total shall be payable by the employee, in addition to any other income-tax for which he may be liable for the year in which the accumulated balance due to him becomes payable.

Deduction at source of income-tax payable on accumulated balances due.

58H. The trustees of a recognised provident fund or other person authorised by the regulations of the fund to make payment of accumulated balances due to employees, shall, at the time an accumulated balance due to an employee is paid, deduct therefrom any income-tax payable under sub-section (2) of section 58G and any income-tax and super-tax payable on an employee's total income as determined under sub-section (3) of section 58J, and sub-section (4) to (9) of section 18 shall apply as if the sum to be deducted were income-tax payable under the head 'Salaries.'

58J. (1) Where recognition is accorded to a provident fund with existing balances, an account shall be made of the fund up to the day before the day on which the recognition takes effect, showing the balance to the credit of each employee on such day, and containing such further particulars as the Central Board of Revenue may prescribe.

(2) The account shall also show in respect of the balance to the credit of each employee the amount thereof which is to be transferred to that employee's account in the recognised provident fund, and such amount (hereinafter called his transferred balance) shall be shown as the balance to his credit in the recognised provident fund on the date on which the recognition of the fund takes effect, and sub-sections (3) and (4) shall apply thereto.

Any portion of the balance to the credit of an employee in the existing fund which is not transferred to the recognised fund shall be excluded from the accounts of the recognised fund and shall be liable to income-tax and super-tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act other than this Chapter.

(3) Subject to such rules as the Central Board of Revenue may make in this behalf, the Income-tax Officer shall make a calculation of the aggregate of all sums comprised in a transferred balance which would have been liable to income-tax if this Chapter had been in force from the date of the institution of the fund, without regard to any tax which may have been paid on any such sum, and such aggregate (if any) shall be deemed to be income received by the employee in the year in which the recognition of the fund takes effect, and shall be included in the employee's total income for that year; and, for the purposes of assessment, the remainder of the transferred balance shall be disregarded, but no other exemption or relief, by way of refund or otherwise, shall be granted in respect of any sum comprised in such transferred balance.

Provided that, in cases of serious accounting difficulty, the Commissioner shall have power subject to the said rules, to make a summary calculation of such aggregate.

- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in condition (h) of sub-section (7) of section 58C, an employee, in order to enable him to pay the amount of tax assessed on his total income as determined under sub-section (3), shall be entitled to withdraw from the balance to his credit in the recognised provident fund a sum not exceeding the difference between such amount and the amount to which he would have been assessed if the transferred balance had not been included in his total income.

(5) Nothing in this section shall effect the rights of the persons administering an unrecognised provident fund or dealing with it, or with the balance to the credit of any individual employee, before recognition is accorded, in any manner which may be lawful.

Treatment of fund transferred by employer to trustee.

58K. (1) Where an employer who maintains a provident fund (whether recognised or not) for the benefit of his employees and has not transferred the fund or any portion of it, transfers such fund or portion to trustees in trust for the employees participating in the fund, the amount so transferred shall be deemed to be of the nature of capital expenditure.

(2) When an employee participating in such fund is paid the accumulated balance due to him therefrom, any portion of such balance as represents his share in the amount so transferred to the trustee (without addition of interest, and exclusive of the employee's contributions and interest thereon) shall be deemed to be an expenditure by the employer within the meaning of clause (ix) of sub-section (2) of section 10, incurred in the year in which the accumulated balance due to the employee is paid.

Provisions relating to rules.

58L. (1) All rules made under this Chapter shall be subject to the provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 59.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th September, 1929 :—

L. A. BILL NO. 24 OF 1929.

A Bill to finally recognize and place beyond doubt the validation of inter-marriage of Arya Samajists.

WHEREAS it is expedient to finally recognize and place beyond doubt the validation of inter-marriage of Arya Samajists; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Arya Marriage Validation Act, 1929.

(2) It shall apply to the whole of British India and shall apply to all cases that may come up for decision after the passing of the Act whether the marriage in question has taken place before or after the passing of this Act.

Definition.

2. For the purpose of this Act "Arya Samajist" shall mean a person who—

- (a) is a member of any Arya Samaj; or
- (b) is a member of the family of, or a relative dependent on, or a person under the guardianship of, any person mentioned in clause (a);
- (c) within five years of the passing of this Act or within one year of his marriage (whichever period expires last) executes a written document expressing himself to be an Arya Samajist or in terms equivalent thereto; and includes the members of the family of, relatives dependent on, and persons under the guardianship of, such a person.

Explanation.—Where the document mentioned in clause (c) is registered under the Indian Registration Act, 1908, it shall be conclusive and no evidence shall be admissible to prove that any person mentioned in clause (c) is not an Arya Samajist. XVI of 1908.

Validation of inter-marriage of Arya Samajists.

3. No marriage of an Arya Samajist shall be invalid by reason of the couple having belonged to different castes or sub-castes of Hindus or to different religions, any law or usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As the Arya Samajists who form quite an appreciable number of the Indian population conscientiously believe that the present caste system is not in accordance with their scriptures, the Vedas, and as according to the law as administered at present marriages among couples belonging to different castes or sub-castes are considered invalid and there is a fear of the issue of such marriages being declared illegitimate and as quite a large number of such marriages have taken place and more would have taken place had there been no such obstacles, it is necessary to have a law which would give relief to the Arya Samajists. Hence the above short law is proposed.

(i) the words “ neither of whom professes the Christian or the Jewish, or the Hindu or the Muhammadan, or the Parsi or the Buddhist, or the Sikh or the Jaina religion ” shall be omitted; and

(ii) after the words “ between persons ” the words “ domiciled in British India ” shall be inserted.

Amendment of clause 2, Second Schedule to Act III of 1872. 4. In the Second Schedule to the said Act, for clause 2 in the Declarations to be made by the bridegroom and the bride, respectively, the followings shall be substituted, namely:—“ I am domiciled in British India ”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The laws of all civilised countries provide for the contract of civil marriage by persons who may so desire. The disability to contract such marriages in India is merely territorial and there is no reason why a similar law should not be enacted for this country. The enactment, if passed, would be merely optional and leaves intact the existing personal laws which control the performance of marriages.

The reasons which have induced me to draft this Bill are as follows:—

Sir Henry Maine as Law Member of the Governor General's Council had introduced a Civil Marriage Bill; but, as the Government were then immediately concerned with an enactment to prescribe a civil form of marriage applicable only to Brahmos by whom they were moved for the enactment of a secular law to enable them to contract marriages, its provisions were so limited in the Bill which became Act III of 1872.

In 1909, the late Mr. Bhupendra Nath Basu and later on Dr. H. S. Gour had also introduced a similar Bill, but its provisions were eventually transformed into those of Act XXX of 1923.

The Baroda State have recently introduced a Civil Marriage Bill; while the Laws of other Indian States are understood to provide for the performance of such marriages. The advantages of the measure, if enacted, are obvious. The Bill would enable persons subject to polygamous marriage laws to contract monogamous marriages and removed the inequality in the matter of divorce. It would elevate the status of women. These benefits have already been assured to the Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs and Jains by Act XXX of 1923, and there is no reason why the benefit that that Act confers upon the communities named should not be extended to other communities who might as regards succession be equally brought under the law enacted in the Indian Succession Act. A provision to this effect has not been inserted in the Bill, but it can be added at a later stage if public opinion favours it. The absence of a civil marriage law lends itself to perjury and artificial conversions which it is the policy of the State to prevent. It was so observed by Sir Henry Maine who advocated the establishment of a non-sectarian marriage law in order to prevent the abuse resulting from such conversions (Proceedings Imperial Council, dated 27th November, 1868, pp. 498, 499).

To sum up then the advantages of such marriages are as follows:—

1. Such marriages are recognised and provided for by the laws of all civilised countries, and it is possible to contract such marriages outside the territorial limits of India. The disability is, therefore, purely territorial, and patriotic Indians are naturally anxious to remove all such disabilities from their way.

2. The Bill is monogamous in its policy and would result in introducing monogamy where polygamous marriages alone are at present possible.

3. It would prevent artificial conversions resulting from the exigency of marriages.

4. It would give a wider field for selection and thus ensure a happier domestic life.

5. It would introduce a greater sincerity in marriages by dispensing with the subscription of a declaration which many desiring to marry under the existing Act have to subscribe to not without considerable mental reserve.

6. It would tend to the unification of the Indian races without at the same time interfering with their personal religion.

7. It would give the wife a more assured position and entitle her to exercise her right of divorce which may not be possible if married under her personal law.

8. And being merely optional it trenches upon no one's rights, but merely prescribes a form to those who, while desiring to escape from the thralldom of their religious ritual, do not wish to renounce it.

It is believed that, with the growing strength of the national sentiment, such a Bill has become a public desideratum, and it has therefore been decided to re-introduce it in the Central Legislature.

REPORT.

With reference to notification No. 16416A., of the Government of Bengal, dated the 31st August 1929, we have the honour to submit the following report in respect of the petition made by Babu Gangadhar Halder with regard to the election of Mr. P. Banerji by the 24-Parganas Rural South (Non-Muhammadan) constituency as a member of the Bengal Legislative Council.

On 18th September 1929 Mr. Garlick, the then President of the Commission, called upon the petitioner to deposit further security of Rs. 2,000 and on 26th September 1929 on a prayer by the petitioner for time to give security November 4th was fixed as the date for doing so, and it was further ordered that the additional security must be given before issues were framed. It should be mentioned that before making this order the President enquired of the petitioner how long he expected the enquiry to last and the petitioner's advocate replied in a letter, dated 7th September 1929, estimating that it would take about ten days.

On November 4th the Commission sat for the first time and the petitioner raised objections to this order. Although in our opinion there were ample reasons on the record for the President's order we postponed consideration of this until the issues were framed, when we should be in a better position to estimate the probable duration of the enquiry.

On November 7th the issues were framed and the petitioner was directed to execute a bond for Rs. 2,000 with sureties as security for further costs in modification of Mr. Garlick's order to deposit the amount. We pointed out in making this order that from the issues framed it was evident that there would be a protracted hearing.

November 14th was the date fixed for executing this bond and for examination of witnesses.

On November 14th the petitioner prayed for stay of the proceedings on the ground that he had applied to His Excellency the Governor for changing the personnel of the Commission. We rejected this petition and called upon the petitioner to execute a bond as ordered. On this he put in a further petition and stating that he could not submit to the humiliation of furnishing security and was unwilling to do so, and prayed that the order might be revoked. This prayer also we rejected.

The petitioner having refused to comply with our order, in our humble opinion the petition ought to be dismissed, as it was in the case of Narayan Laxman versus Atmaram Mahadeo Atavne, Vol. 111, Madras Election Petitions, page 173. We therefore recommend that the petition be dismissed with costs, and that the petitioner should pay to respondent No. 1 Rs. 200 towards the costs of this petition.

ADDENDA AND CORRIGENDA.

No. 5271F.—23rd November 1929.—The following corrections have been authorised and are published for information:—

The Bengal Financial Rules, 1st Edition.

Pages 135-36—T.O. 16, S.R. 35, clause (f).—Substitute the following for this rule and all notes except Note 1 under the rule:—

10A. The following transactions of the Provincial Government will be taken to the nearest anna, six pies and over being treated as one whole anna and amounts less than six pies being omitted:—

(1) Payments to or recoveries from Government servants and pensioners, except as specified below:—

(a) In the case of emoluments fixed by statute, the payment may be to the next higher anna.

(b) In the case of pies occurring in life insurance premia under the Postal Life Insurance scheme, and in subscriptions to uncovenanted pension funds, such as the Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund, the Bombay and the Bengal Uncovenanted Family Pension Funds, which are deducted from pay bills, the total sum for twelve months is bound to be an even sum of annas, and every subscriber should be asked to pay to the nearest anna eleven months in the year, the necessary adjustment being made in the last month; thus, a man who has to pay Rs. 3-5-7 per month may pay Rs. 3-6-0 per month for eleven months and Rs. 3-1-0 in the twelfth month. In the case of the General Provident Fund and the Indian Civil Service Pension Fund deductions will, however, be made in whole rupees.

(c) As regards recoveries of amounts under objection, when all amounts of bills are calculated in annas, there cannot be any pies in objection books, except in the case of recoveries of advances in instalments. These instalments need not be exactly equal and the recoveries should be so fixed as to be always in annas, the last instalment being adjusted as necessary; thus a motor car advance of Rs. 5,000 to be repaid in 36 instalments should be recovered as follows:—35 instalments of Rs. 138-14-0 and a last instalment of the balance Rs. 139-6-0.

(2) Accounts rendered by one Government or Department to another—

NOTE.—Pies need not be eliminated in exchange accounts between one Government or Department and another if it is not possible to remove them from the original transactions.

(3) Amounts converted into Indian currency from sterling. The same rule should be applied ordinarily to receipts on account of remittance transfer receipts, deposits, and to all receipts other than receipts of revenue which are fixed by or under any law.

Page 184—F. R. Appendix 3, rule 12, II, clause (g).—Substitute the following for the last sentence:—

“See the note under article 151, Account Code.”

Page 68—Rule 218.—Under clause (a) of this rule insert the following as a note:—

NOTE.—As an exception to this rule, the details need not be reproduced in a subsequent bill if the details of all the items of that bill are contained in a single previous bill.

Part VI

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 26th September, 1929:—

L. A. BILL No. 35 OF 1929.

A Bill to amend the Mussalman Wakf Validating Act, 1913.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen regarding the applicability of the Mussalman Wakf Validating Act, 1913, to wakfs created before its VI of 1913, enactment;

AND whereas it is expedient to resolve such doubts;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Mussalman Wakf Validating (Amendment) Act, 1929.

Amendment of section 1, Act VI of 1913.

2. In sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Mussalman Wakf Validating Act, 1913, after the words "It extends to the whole of British India" the following words shall be added, namely:—

"and shall apply to all wakfs whenever executed."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Muhammadian law permits a perpetual bequest in the form of a Wakf-al-aulad, that is a bequest for the benefit of the testator's descendants. As such, it contravenes the law against perpetuities as enacted in section 14 of the Transfer of Property Act, and section 114 of the Indian Succession Act. A doubt was cast on this doctrine by the Privy Council in several cases in which their Lordships held such bequests illegal as obnoxious to the rule against perpetuities (Abdul Fata v. Rasamaya 22 C. 619 P.C.; Abdul Fagur v. Nizamuddin 17 B. I. P. C.; Mujib-u-nissa v. Abdul Rahim 23 A. 233 P.C.; Muhammad Munawar Ali v. Razia Bibi 27 A. 320 P. C.). Mr. Jinnah introduced a Bill which became Act VI of 1913 restoring the validity of such Wakfs.

But in several cases since decided this Act is held to be inapplicable to wakfs created before its enactment (Khajeh Soelhman v.

Salimullah 49 C. 820 P. C.; Rahimunissa v. Shaik Manik Jan 19 C. W. N. 76; Mahomed Bukht v. Dewan Ajman Reja 43 C. 158; Amir Bibi v. Azizabibi 39 B. 563).

As Act VI of 1913 was merely declaratory of the validity of such wakfs, it was understood that it would apply equally to all wakfs whether created before or since that enactment. But as the Courts have held otherwise, this Bill is framed to give that Act retrospective operation.

It is apprehended that the Mussalman Wakfs Validating Act (VI of 1913) was not intended to introduce a change in the old law being enacted, to restore the old rule. This Bill will, if passed, carry out its intention by resolving a doubt resulting from recent cases.

CALCUTTA, THE 20TH NOVEMBER 1929.

RESOLUTION—No. 5539 VETY.

READ—

Annual Reports of the Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal, and of the Bengal Veterinary College for the year 1928-29.

I. Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal.

Though the scheme for providing an additional Assistant Director was administratively approved in August 1928, it has not yet been found possible to give effect to it for financial reasons, with the result that the proposed redistribution of the several districts of the Presidency into three ranges, each under a separate Assistant Director, is still in abeyance. For the same reason effect has not yet been given to the approved scheme for providing nine Staff Veterinary Assistant Surgeons for controlling outbreaks of epidemic diseases although Government fully realise the difficulty of dealing effectively with such outbreaks in various parts of the province with only one Staff Veterinary Assistant Surgeon, particularly in view of the shortage of the veterinary staff employed by the local bodies. It is, however, gratifying to note that it has been found possible to give effect to the sanctioned scheme for the appointment of a propaganda officer of the rank of Inspector. His principal duty will be to carry on propaganda work with the help of a magic lantern, and to disseminate information regarding veterinary diseases, their prevention and treatment, etc. It is hoped that the officer will justify his appointment by bringing home to the minds of cultivators their responsibility in regard to the health of the cattle under their charge.

2. As regards the scheme for the appointment of a Research Officer submitted by the Veterinary Adviser, Government, while appreciating its merits, are of opinion that it must await conditions under which it can be discussed with some prospects of a successful issue. Moreover Government also consider it important that the scheme should be examined by the Provincial Committee on Agricultural Research, which is now in process of formation in pursuance of the recommendation of the Royal Commission on Agriculture.

3. While Government have been doing all that is practicable in the matter of providing the supervising and other staff of the department which are exclusively maintained from public funds, it is regrettable to find that some local bodies have so far not yet shouldered their own share of the burden, the result being that the programme of providing two Veterinary Assistant Surgeons for each subdivision is far from being carried out.

4. The most noticeable event which has taken place since the close of the year is that Government have issued orders regarding the free supply of serum to local bodies with retrospective effect from 1st April 1927. This has relieved these bodies of a charge of Rs. 70,000 per annum, and it is hoped that they will now bear their legitimate share of the veterinary expenditure more readily than hitherto.

5. It is pleasing to note that the year under review has been generally a healthy one for the live-stock of the province. Rinderpest continues to be the most serious scourge, being responsible for 67 per cent. of the deaths reported from bovine diseases. A very important feature of the campaign of the year was a free demonstration of the serum simultaneous method of inoculation against rinderpest organised at char Patharghata in the district of Bakarganj. It is hoped that the demonstration will prove of real value. It may be expected that the gradual extension of the serum simultaneous method of inoculation will tend towards the reduction of the death rate on account of rinderpest. In this connection Government note with satisfaction that the death rate among inoculated animals was negligible during the year.

6. The record of the working of the veterinary hospitals and dispensaries is not very satisfactory, the number of such institutions having been reduced from 45 to 44. The most striking feature appears to be the abrupt fall from 21,290 to 9,353 in the number of cases not brought to hospital but supplied with medicine. The reasons as stated in the report do not seem to explain adequately this abnormal decrease and the matter requires further investigation. Government join with the Director in thanking the Rani Brindarani Chaudhurani, of Dimla, for her generous contribution towards the construction of the veterinary dispensary at that station and note with pleasure that the Maharaja of Susang in Mymensingh also contemplates opening a veterinary dispensary on his own estate in collaboration with the district board. It is hoped that other landlords of the province will emulate these efforts.

7. It is satisfactory to notice that cattle fairs and shows continued to be attended by departmental officers who took these opportunities of delivering lectures on veterinary matters and of explaining to the people the modern methods of treatment of diseases and of management of cattle. This is essentially necessary for the development of veterinary knowledge among cultivators who are proverbially conservative.

8. Government note with pleasure the names of officers of the department who did good work during the year and desire also to acknowledge the services of Messrs. Kerr and Davis for their efficient administration of the department.

II. The Bengal Veterinary College.

9. Government are gratified to note that the demand for admission into the college shows an increase. With the opening of a Veterinary College at Patna students will, of course, cease to come from Bihar and Orissa, but in view of the increase in the number of students from Bengal seeking admission into the college, it does not seem probable that the position will be affected very seriously. At the same time, Government would again take this opportunity of urging that local bodies be prepared to bear their legitimate share of veterinary expenditure specially as they are now being supplied with serum free of charge.

It is most disappointing to note that the district board stipends in Bengal compare very unfavourably with those of other provinces. The attention of the boards is drawn to the matter.

10. Government note with satisfaction that the Raymond Research Laboratory has maintained its record of continued good work during the year under review.

11. The recommendations of the Royal Commission on Agriculture relating to the Veterinary Department are being considered by Government. Such of the accepted recommendations as may involve additional expenditure must, unhappily, await better financial conditions, while effect will be given to others as early as may be practicable.

12. Government desire to acknowledge the care and attention which Messrs. MacGregor and Davis devoted to the administration of the college and would also record their appreciation of the manner in which the committee of management have conducted their work.
